MOVEMENTS OF STOCK

PRICES INCONCLUSIVE. NEW BANK FAILURE IS BARELY NOTICED.

Amalgamated Copper Loses Two Points on Adverse Court Decision in Montana.

New York, Out. 21.—The movement of the price of stocks to-day was again inconclusive, the net changes being for the most part trivial. Losses prodominated at the end of the day, but the market had quite generally advanced in face of the early unfavorable developments. The susceptible of an Allegheny bank growing out the federal sused scarce and the product of the Federal constant of the federal sused scarce and the federal constant of refraining from trading in bank stocks and the provision of a two-million deliar safety fund amongst the banks. Lendon also affected this market unfavorably, owexpected to develop this fall have not come into evidence. This is corroborative of the reports of curtailment in betterment work by the railroads and is capable of an unfavorable interpretation. But it has served to ease the pressure on the money market. Deposits at the Subtreasury to-day for transfer to New Orleans were $350,000. following the deposit for a similar purpose resterday of $155,000. This is sowincing evidence of a much freer movement of the cotton crop, which the very large port receipts of to-day also testify to. The prospect of the resulting large supply of bills in the exchange market is viewed with satisfaction. The movement of funds to the West is still small, although New York exchange at Chicago fell to 15c discount to-day, compared with the recently prevailing premium. The principal factor of the late reaction of the market was the drop of nearly 2 points in Amalgamated Copper, which asserbed practically all of the attention in the market, after the announcement of the decisions against it in the Montana litigation. The market closed steady.

The bond market was broad and strong. Total sales of bonds, par value, were $2.500. United States 2s and the new $3.500. United States 2s and the new

CUT IN CASH PREMIUMS CAUSES SELLING OF WHEAT

MOST WEAKNESS SHOWN IN DECEMBER DELIVERY.

Better Demand for Corn Keeps Prices Firm-Provisions Are Quiet, but Firmer.

Chicago, Get. 22-The lowering of each premiums in all markets and anticipations of increased country acceptances in the free selling of Dec. wheat to-day, and weakness was manifested in that delivery, the close being biblic lower. Decthe, while Jan. provisions were from The to No higher.

WHEAT General selling of Dec. wheat was the chief feature of trading in that pit, and lower prices were recorded. Opening prices CORN.

A better demand for corn existed than for some time past and the market ruled firm. Local traders were generally bullish. firm. Local traders were generally bullish. Influenced by the recent good cash demand and by the continued recent of reports from nearly all sections of the corn belt, showing poor results from huskings. Scairers and commission houses bought freely of both Ivec and May, and there was some selling of May by private theresists but offerings on the vinde were light. Closing prices were steady, with Dec. Lie higher, at sic, after selling between Equ and styletales. Local receipts were 25 cars, with 15 of contract grade. OATS.

Firmness characterized the trading in outs, due largely to the better tone in corn. There was considerable covering by local shorts, and the selling was scattered, but mostly by longs with profits. After ranging between 30 ic and 34234 ic. Iver. closed ic ligher at 50 kg. Local receipts were 195 cars.

PROVISIONS.

Provisions were extremely quiet, but a trifle firmer feeling prevailed, influenced by an edvance of 10c in the price of hogs. The only feature was a fair demand for lard by brokers. Jan. pork closed 5c higher at $11.50\text{is}, Jan. lard was up 2\text{is} at $15.50\text{is}, Jan. lard was up 2\text{is} at $15.50\text{is}, Jan. lard was up 2\text{is} at $15.50\text{is}, fair are series for to-morrow. Chicago, III., Oct. 22.—Flatased was easy and 14,820 lower. May sold at Sec and Dec. at Sec. No. 1 Northwestern sold at Sec. No. 1 was 52: bid. Receipts were 11 cars here, 45 at Minneapolis and 25 at Duluth.

SUMMARY OF THE ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

Trading in grain was marrow and purely professional in yesterday's market. The Dec. longs made an early attempt to advance values on the leftover news from the previous day, but the outlook was not very builtsh and, in the absence of outside in-terest, values eased off toward the close of the session. Cash buying in the Northwest was not as large as had been expected and the local spot inquiry was light. Though receipts here and at other primary points were moderate, they were more than sufficient to supply the demand. Cables were barely steady and the general for-eign sentiment seemed unfavorable to an increase in the volume of export trading. Clearances were smaller than they had been for some time. There were occasional buying spurts on advances in other markets, but few of the big traders were active and transfers were mainly of small lots. Liquidation by early purchasers broke the market in the last hour and the feeling at the close was weak in line with other speculative century

Corn was stronger than wheat, despite generally favorable weather conditions, Light receipts gave the bears something to worry about and there was enough covering to cause slight gains in the active options.

Dec. wheat opened 4c off and closed 4c off. Dec. corn opened 4c up and closed 4c up.

Dec. oats closed &c up.

Receipts of produce were moderate and prices of fruits and vegetables were steady Local securities ruled extremely dull. Tractions were easy after opening steady.

Yesterday's bank clearings were 19,023,634, balances $433,855. Discount rates were stendy between 5 and 6 per cent.

Spot cotton was unchanged in the local market.

WHEAT EASES OFF AFTER SLIGHT ADVANCE.

Late Cash Demand Is Moderate and Export Inquiry Is Extremely Light.

than last year, there was more than smough to supply the cash demand. Light exports and a falling off in the cash demand caused a break at the close. Cables were burely steady.

Dec, wheat opened 15c off and sold at: Mr. 1014. 2014/2164. 2014/21614. 2014. 1640.

Strength in other markets and moderate local receipts were the buillah factors in uors. Though there seemed to be an opening for a good advance the interest was purely professional and the volume of trading was too small to make a runnway market. Early gains were shaded off by a light cash demand and outside weakness in the last hour.

Dec. corn opened he up and sold at: 29%c, 29%c, 46c, 25%@40c, 25%c, 25%c, 25%c,
